

June 7, 2015 MOMSR interviews Ray Benson Asleep At The Wheel

Thank you for your interest in creating a music and sound recording technology museum in Austin, Texas. We're reeling fast forward as quickly as possible. Still looking for a permanent home.

We just completed a fun interview with Ray Benson. Ray shared stories about his early music and recording history, as well as, the evolution of Asleep At The Wheel. An amazing journey that's still on the road today! We sincerely appreciate Ray sharing his story with our Museum. We include a couple of relevant clips from Floyd Domino's interview as well. Ray has an incredible history in so many areas. The interview includes information about his Bismeaux Studios and the equipment that he used over the years. Enjoy!

Cheers!
